The swellest line of Hats, Neckwear, Underwear, Collars and Cuffs, at Rice & Arnold's, Richmond, Ky.

The College Brick and Tile Works are to be located in a field near Rucker's Knob, out Walnut Meadow pike way.

A visitor to Berea last week asked THE CITIZEN: "Does your town council rent its principal street for a log and lumber yard?"

Mrs. J. A. Greenough, of Westfield, Mass., who is well known to some of our citizens, writes: "Mr. Greenough and I read your paper, and enjoy it."

R. W. Smith, of Irvine, representative for the Gates Shoe Co., of Cincinnati, was around among our merchants Friday and Saturday.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Dr. Burgess on Tuesday, April 15, at 2.30 p. m. "Sunday amusements and excursions" will be the subject for consideration.

It would be difficult to find a town with dirtier streets than Berea. Banana peel, paper scraps, trimmings of cabbage heads and store sweepings are much in evidence.

If THE CITIZEN should publish all the kind, appreciative letters it has received since Jan. 1, 1902, they would take up nearly half the columns of one number of the paper.

A Trustee of Berea College writes to THE CITIZEN in a personal letter: "You are making a good paper. It is clean, newsy and elevating. You are doing a noble work."

J. D. Clarkson, former student at Berea, now merchant at Sidell, called on THE CITIZEN and renewed. Mr. Clarkson had been to Louisville to stock up for the spring trade.

Last Thursday afternoon J. Coyle, formerly a merchant here, fell on the sidewalk near his home, sustaining a compound fracture of the ankle. We are glad to say he is getting on well.

In Magistrate's Court last Thursday the attachment suit of Clift vs. Warren was transferred to Blue Lick district, and the suit of Bicknell & Early vs. W. A. Todd and wife was transferred to Judge Gay's court.

The Glee Club program Tuesday night will be of a popular nature. Vocal, instrumental and whistling solos of a high order, in addition to the large number of selections rendered by the Club, will be given.

The Glee Club sang to a very appreciative audience at Lancaster last Friday night. The troupe was accompanied by Mrs. Hinman, Misses Woods and Ruddock as soloists and Mrs. Lodwick as accompanist.

Work has commenced on a parsonage for Second Church. The house will be a nice, commodious building. Capt. Thomas, the lumberman of Ford, has contributed in the neighborhood of $600 towards the enterprise.
